This week's episode of "Weir Farm Artist-In-Residence Reflections: Creating During the Pandemic" features 2006 Artist-In-Residence Uday Dhar. During each episode of this series we are joined by an AIR Alumni where they reflect on their experiences while in residence, how the residency has influenced their work since their time at Weir Farm National Historic Site, and how they have responded to the current pandemic.

For ease of access there are multiple ways in which to watch this series. Please see links below:
