2022 Weir Farm Artist-In-Residence Program Artist Announcement

Wilton, CT – The Weir Farm Art Alliance is excited to welcome artists back to the Weir Farm Artist-In-Residence Program. The artists participating in this year's program were initially selected for the 2020 AIR Program but were unable to complete their residencies due to the pandemic. Stay tuned to our social media pages as we share updates from each artist during their residency. And following their residency, each artist will participate in a video interview where they will share more about their time at Weir Farm.

Artists will spend time in and around Weir Farm National Historical Park to inspire their creations for the duration of the residency. Each artist will spend 2-4 weeks living on-site in the Cottage and using the state-of-the-art Artist's Studio. Visit our website for more information about each artist.

About Weir Farm Art Alliance

Weir Farm Art Alliance (WFAA) preserves, sustains, and promotes the legacy of American Impressionist painter Julian Alden Weir. The WFAA honors Weir and the continued generations of artists inspired by Weir Farm, most notably sculptor Mahonri Young and landscape painters Sperry and Doris Andrews. WFAA is a private, non-profit organization that is the philanthropic partner of the Weir Farm National Historical Park.
